Attractive apartment located in the city center, near Slavija Square and Manjez Park. It is positioned in a quiet part of the street and is well connected with the highway inclusion, which is within about five minutes driving distance. Several public transportation stops are in immediate vicinity, with transports leading to different parts of the city. The apartment is housed on the third floor of a newer building with physical security and parking space in the garage, located in the basement of the building. The building has a very nice entrance. The apartment is double-oriented and spacious. It consists of a large anteroom leading into a living room, which is connected to dining area and has access to the balcony. A large fully equipped kitchen is separated from the living-dining part. The first sleeping block is placed next to the anteroom, with two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a laundry room and toilet at disposal. The second sleeping block could be reached through the dining. It consists of two more bedrooms with a bathroom between them. The whole apartment has a modern interior, abundant with natural light and air-conditioned. Walls in warm tones, curtains with drapes, built-in closets, fitted kitchen, make this apartment an excellent choice. In the living room there is also a large aquarium that contributes to the comfort of the ambience. Functional structure, suitable both for residential and business purposes.
