Excellent apartment, positioned within an elite residential area of Dedinje which has good transport links to the city center. Vicinity of a number of embassies and diplomatic missions. Completely renovated property, located in a busy street near the Dragisa Misovic Hospital. Neighborhood is rich in greenery and the building itself is secluded from a busy street, with a parking lot and a small courtyard in front of it. The apartment is housed on the ground floor of an older building without an elevator, well maintained, with a small number of apartments. It consists of a central hallway which leads into each room. The living room is spacious and has new parquet and fitted wardrobes. Kitchen with dining area is separate and has access to a terrace. Bedroom is equipped with a double bed and a large closet which spreads accross the entire length of the wall. Bathroom has a bathtub and a new washing machine. Completely furnished, bright and two side oriented apartment, the right choice for one person or a couple. There is a parking space in the yard only for building tenants.
