An elegant apartment, completely renovated, in a pre-war building near Bajloni green-market. It is housed on the high ground floor of the building and is suitable both for comfortable life or for various business activities. The large, central entrance leads to two spacious rooms which are mutually connected to by a door. The rooms face the street. Anteroom also leads to the other part of the apartment, which consists of a kitchen, a bathroom and a smaller room with a separate entrance from the terrace. The bathroom is accessed from the kitchen. The large doors and interesting lighting give this apartment a special charm. It can be additionally equipped with individual pieces of furniture, as well as emptied of the ones inside. Pets are allowed.
