Very pleasant apartment located on the first floor of a representative pre-war building with an excellently maintained entrance, and in one of the most desirable locations in the very center of the city, just a few minutes' walk from Kalemegdan.

The apartment is double-oriented, bright and has functional room layout. A spacious living room is connected to dining area and a fully equipped kitchen, creating a comfortable space for everyday life and receiving guests.

It has two large bedrooms, as well as an additional smaller room ideal for a study, library or children's room, from which there is access to a small loggia. There are also two beautifully decorated bathrooms, both equipped with shower cabins.

Quiet street, authentic parlor architecture, high ceilings and proximity to all amenities that the city center offers make this property an ideal choice for family life or business people who want to be in the heart of the city, yet enjoy peace and privacy.
